United Nations
Environment Programme
Billion Trees Campaign

You are cordially invited by Exeter College, Oxford, with Earth Charter UK and the Centre for International Sustainable Development Law, to an International Seminar and Tree Planting Ceremony.

Honoring International Agreements for the Earth

Saturday 10th February, 2007
at 10.45am.

The Saskatchewan Room,
Exeter College, Oxford.

Wangari Maathai,
Nobel Prize Laureate, Green Belt Movement
Julia Marton-LeFèvre,
Director-General, World Conservation Union
(IUCN)
Marie-Claire Cordonier Segger &
Ashfaq Khalfan, Directors, CISDL & Chairs,
World Summit on Sustainable Development IISD
Partnership

The International Seminar will be followed by a tree-planting ceremony on the mound overlooking Radcliffe Square at the foot of the Fellows' Garden. At the anniversary of the coming into force of the Kyoto Protocol to the UN Convention on Climate Change, this event will mark a triple launch in the UK:

- Earth Charter in the United Kingdom
- The UNEP Billion Tree Campaign
- The Oxford / CISDL Sustainable Development Law Guest Lecture Series

The seminar and talk will take place in the Saskatchewan Lecture Theatre. It focuses on Honoring International Agreements for the Earth, with interventions on The Earth Charter in the UK Earth Charter UK, Commitment and Compliance with Earth Treaties CISDL and Local and Global Action for the Earth Green Belt Movement.

After the Seminars, a Jazz band will lead the procession to Fellows Garden where the Tree Planting Ceremony to Launch the UNEP Billion Trees Campaign will take place.

The ceremony will be followed by lunch in the College Hall.
